1. Course

1.2) Other reason for taking course:

- psychology major requirement

1.4) Level of Effort Explanation:

- Always attended class, completed assignments on time and asked questions
- Could have prepared more and studied a little harder
- I have attended everyday and worked hard in the class
- took time to study

1.6) Overall Rating Explanation:

- I have taken this class before at my community college and it was much better here.
- It was difficult but I learned a lot
- The class was well-structured, the expectations were clear, and prepared me not only for my major but for my professional career as well.
- This course was very helpful, and is great for students who plan to do research
- Very difficult course but well worth the time and effort - you get out what you put in

1.8) Likelihood Explanation:

- Even though this class is required, I'm glad I took it with this professor because it could have been very confusing otherwise.
- Heide is a great professor and it is easy to learn from her
- Heide is a great professor. I would recommend any of her classes.
- It is a good class and you learn a lot
- It is very dry material for the most part, but that is no one's fault. If it is not a major requirement I would not recommend someone take it for fun

1.10) Skills/understanding Explanation:

- I understand what we cover and how it is applicable to life

2. Instructor

2.2) Instructor Rating Explanation:

- Heide creates a fun and intriguing classroom environment. She provides interesting labs and is always helping students.
- Heide made the class as interesting as she could and really worked hard to help us succeed.
- Heide really cares about her students and what she is teaching.
- Love her
- This professor is very organized, structured, and lets the students know exactly what she expects of them. She knows how to explain the material in a way the students will understand, and gives multiple examples until the students understand the topic at hand.

- makes class interesting and keeps the students engaged

2.4) Recommendation Explanation:

- Any class with Heide would be worth taking.
- Heide really cares about the success of her students and will help them in any way. She also a very fun professor
- I would recommend this professor, especially for this course. If I have a chance to take another course with her, I definitely will. An excellent professor that cares about her students, in this class and in their future college and professional careers.
- She's amazingg
- she is understanding of situations and makes sure the class is set up to where is you have a bad day on an exam you can still pass the class.

2.5) Please provide any additional comments that you want to make about the course and instructor.

- Heide cares about her job and it shows. She is always understanding when something happens and will help you in any way. Very, very great professor and human being.
- I thought she taught the class very well and made it easy to internalize. She's very flexible and sympathetic. Very lovely :)
- KEEP DOING WHAT YOU'RE DOING. GREAT JOB!
